factions in the Association of Indian Spiritualists continue their strife. (The O'Neil, of Indianapolis, who was elected vice-president of the association in 1894 has sold his cottage on the grounds and resigned his membership. It is reported that a rival camp ground will be located on the David Kilgore farm, near Yorktown. It will be on the Anderson and Adams electric line. The O'Neil is said to be one of the promoters of the new camp. It is backed by the Indiana, Michigan and Illinois Protective Association.

There is talk of opening the Chestnut field camp on May 1, next year, and continue in session until September 1. The program for speakers and mediums, however, will not occupy more than a few weeks.

Three Hundred Prisoners Captured—Hunter Reports Results at Bethleham and Harminth.

LONDON, August 8.—The following report, dated Pretoria, August 8, has been received from Lord Roberts: "Kitchener was informed yesterday by an escaped British prisoner that De Wet's wagons had crossed the Vaal. Afterward I heard the sound of guns, which, as I directed him to take up a position between Potchefstroom and Lindeke, where he could intercept the enemy, who crossed the river at De Wet's camp. Kitchener is crossing the Vaal with cavalry and mounted infantry. "Hunter reports that he made 410 prisoners in the Bethleham-Harminth district, a majority of whom are now en route for Cape Town. Three guns and four thousand horses were captured and ten wagon loads of ammunition was destroyed. "The garrison of Elands river, which I fear, has been captured, consisted of about three hundred bushmen and Rhodesians. I had hoped that Carrington had been time to withdraw the garrison, but it seems that Delarey, learning of Ian Hamilton's approach to Rustenburg, hurried westward and surrounded the garrison before Carrington arrived. "Methuen telegraphs that he engaged a party of De Wet's forces yesterday near Benterkoon. He drove the enemy off of a succession of hills which they held obstinately. One hundred and seven men killed or wounded, including four officers."

Boston Snobs Competitors. BOSTON, Mass., August 8.—The annual convention of the National Association of Boot and Shoe Manufacturers came to an abrupt ending last night, and from the expressions made by delegates, it is probable that the association passed this new body was nearly disgusted with its experience in Boston. The association was formed in this city last year and was almost entirely made up of Southern and Western manufacturers, who are the business competitors of shoe manufacturers in New England. This year the association was held in Boston, and the delegates there were surprised to find that there was scarcely any evidence of cordiality shown to them by the Boston snobs in whose neighborhood they met.

Celebration at Buenos Aires. BUENOS AIRES, August 8.—There was an important demonstration here Sunday, the anniversary of the revolution of 1880. Twenty thousand persons took part in the celebration, and the city was decorated with flags.

Every railroad running into Ft. Wayne brings scores of sufferers seeking this cure, and marvelous cures are being accomplished. They will send free to every sufferer a free trial treatment, so that every one can cure themselves. This is the only known cure for blood poison, and the free trial will be sent in plain package.

Visiting Friends in Knoxville.

"I had been greatly troubled by being kept awake at night whenever I directed. I also suffered with my digestion. Last summer I was visiting a friend in Knoxville, who had been suffering from rheumatism, caused by coffee drinking. She had quit using coffee, and was using Postum, and had recovered; also her delicate daughter who had been invalid for a long time, was greatly benefited by the use of Postum Food Office. "I found while I was there and using Postum regularly, that I slept much better, and grew so strong in my nerves that the change was wonderful. I trust my testimonial will be the means of inducing others to try your magnificent beverage. These are true and honest facts." Miss Frances Smith, 68 Douglas street, Chattanooga, Tenn.

The reason, Miss Smith and her friends improved in health, is that coffee acts as a poison on many delicate constitutions. When it is left out of the cause of the trouble is removed, then Postum Food Office is taken, and the system is quickly re-built of the nerve centers. Made at the pure food factories of the Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich., and sold by all first-class grocers.

THE CHARGES AGAINST POLICE BOARD FILED.

Governor Says the Board will be Asked Immediately to Make Formal Reply to Them.

The formal charges against the board of police commissioners of the city of Terre Haute were filed with Governor Mount this forenoon. The papers in the case were taken to the Governor's office by Eli F. Ritter, attorney at law, but the Governor at that time was too busy to take up consideration of the charges, and the matter was postponed until this week. Mr. Ritter again called on the Governor to-day.

With the charges are affidavits supporting the allegations in the complaint. Governor Mount examined the papers and, finding them in proper form, has been pleased to sign them. He informed Mr. Ritter that the police board would be asked immediately to make formal answer to the charges. When answer had been made the case would be taken up for final adjudication. The Governor's answer is almost overhauled with official duties, and he can not say just when the case will be taken up for settlement.

IMPERIALISTS

THEY MEET IN THIS CITY ON AUGUST 15.

National ticket may be put in the field—Commercial Club's offer is accepted.

The next important political event in Indianapolis will be the convention of the American Anti-Imperialist League, held Wednesday. Letters and telegrams from members of the league indicate that some of the delegates will be here by Monday afternoon, and it is expected that by the day of the meeting several hundred men, who are not in accord with the foreign policy of the national administration, will be here. Edwin Burritt Smith, of Chicago, chairman of the executive committee of the league, who attended the Bryan notification meeting, thinks that not fewer than one thousand representatives of the movement will attend the meeting.

When the meeting was called, the officers of the league had in mind that the anti-imperialists of the country should gather here and endorse Bryan and Stevenson and the Kansas City platform. Within the last two weeks, members of the league say, a movement looking to the nomination of candidates for President and Vice-President has taken form. It is not surprising if a strong effort is made to persuade the convention to put out a ticket. The movement comes from the members of the league who do not wish to vote for either McKinley or Bryan.

Many Prominent Men Coming.

The convention, it is stated, is to be a sort of free-for-all affair, and it is anticipated that there will be some talking and a general discussion as to whether the league should back a new ticket. Among those to be here are many persons of wide reputation, and it is being predicted that the convention will be of high quality. Some of the men who were conspicuous in the movement four years ago will be in attendance.

The local committee is completing arrangements for the meeting. Hotel accommodations have already been engaged for a good number of persons. Patrick O'Farrell, Washington; L. W. Habersorn, Washington; President Davis, of the United States; George W. Mercey, Philadelphia; the Rev. H. B. Higdon, Cincinnati; Dewitt Warner, New York; John W. Johnson, New York; J. A. Harte, South Hampton, N. Y.; Stanley J. Abbott, Massachusetts; Elwood B. Corcoran, Minnesota; George W. Mercey, Boston; Irving Winslow, Boston; J. P. O'Brien, Boston; Senator Wellington, Maryland; J. B. Bacon, Maryland; H. W. Turner, former consul to Cadiz, Spain; Congressman J. C. Sherwin, Emerson, Iowa; Louis B. Erich, Colorado; John W. Turner, and John Brisbane Walker, editor of the Cosmopolitan.

It is expected that the convention will be in session two or three days.

FOR THE NATIONAL PARTY.

Commercial Club's Offer of Assembly Room is Accepted.

The directors of the Commercial Club, at a meeting this afternoon, tendered the new National Anti-Imperialist League the use of the club's assembly room at the time of the meeting of gold Democrats, the use of the club's assembly room for the party's convention, called to meet in Indianapolis August 15. The offer was accepted. It is believed that the hall will be large enough for the delegates to the first national convention of the newly-created political party.

THE UNION REFORM PARTY.

Chairman Thompson Discusses Its Principles.

Concerning the Union Reform party, which selected a State ticket yesterday, Chairman G. Thompson, of the national committee, said that it was organized in Ohio, in May, 1898, by the survivors of the Liberty, People's, free silver Republican and few minor parties that agreed to come together under the head of the new organization.

The Union Reform party, he says, stands for direct legislation only, and its platform declares for:

"Direct legislation under the system known as the initiative and referendum; under the initiative the people can compel the submission to themselves of any law, when, if it receives a majority of the votes cast, it is thereby enacted; under the referendum, the people can compel the submission of any law which has been adopted by the legislature, when, if such law fails to receive the majority of votes cast, it will thereby be rejected."

"The principles set forth in this platform are the underlying spirit which has dominated the movement of the party since its formation for the last twenty years, and it has been found to be very satisfactory to submit legislation to the people in a direct way. The platforms of other parties, such as the Liberty, People's, and free silver parties, are all founded on the initiative and referendum, and the people can compel the submission of any law which has been adopted by the legislature, when, if such law fails to receive the majority of votes cast, it will thereby be rejected."

Against National Conventions.

"As soon as the Union Reform party effects an organization it discontinues holding further conventions. Nominations are made directly by the people at the polls. For making nominations two ballots are necessary. The people are privileged to choose only one on the first ballot, and from the three receiving the highest number the people make the final choice on an old-fashioned plan. This scheme is being used in Ohio today, and its exponents claim that it does away with the expense of the disagreeable friction that attends national conventions."

Mr. Thompson says that in the State of Ohio Union Reform takes three places on the national ticket, having taken the place formerly held by the Populist party. It is said that the new organization polled 12,000 votes in 1898, and that this number largely last year, in spite of the Jones movement, which almost swept Ohio off its feet.

Before joining the Union Reform movement Mr. Thompson was prominently identified with the Prohibition party, but after the big split which occurred at Pittsburg in 1895 he cast his lot with the broad-gauge wing, and subsequently took an active part in the organization of the Union Reform party.

Burchard G. Hawkins's Work.

John I. Martin, who was sergeant-at-arms for the Democratic notification, appointed Burchard G. Hawkins, of Secretary Hawkins, to help him, and was so pleased with the boy's work that he looked at the matter from a different standpoint. Governor Poynter said: "I do not believe Mr. Towne's withdrawal will have any material effect one way or the other on the result in this State. When the people have had time to consider the situation thoroughly and have come to their own conclusions, they will record better than they will be perfectly willing to support him instead of Mr. Towne."

POPULISTS AT CHICAGO.

BOSTON, Mass., August 9.—George F. Washburn, treasurer of the national committee of the People's party, said regarding the withdrawal of Mr. Towne as the vice-presidential candidate of the People's party.

POPULISTS AT CHICAGO.

The withdrawal of Mr. Towne without our party's consent is both humiliating and embarrassing, my mind is a political blunder. Had he remained our vice-presidential candidate he would have attracted attention second only to Bryan himself, and have held in line the Populist vote as well as the silver Republican vote. Our party would have been strengthened, his withdrawal will complicate matters and give comfort to our opponents. Our party must win at an early date, and I believe, will place a Populist vice-presidential candidate in nomination."

POPULISTS AT CHICAGO.

Committee Meets to Consider Indorsement of Stevenson.

CHICAGO, August 9.—The executive committee of the Populist national committee met here today to take action in regard to the indorsement of Stevenson, the ticket of that party caused by the withdrawal of Charles A. Towne.

POPULISTS AT CHICAGO.

It was scarcely expected before the meeting that any formal action would be taken this afternoon, as several members of the committee wished to have further conferences with Mr. Towne and William J. Bryan, who will arrive this evening. The question was generally expressed among the members of the committee that the meeting would result in the indorsement of Adlai E. Stevenson.

POPULISTS AT CHICAGO.

Another question to come before the committee is that of fusion in Idaho. A strong effort will be made to bring about fusion of the Democratic and free silver Republican and Populist parties in that State.

The members of the executive committee present were Secretary J. A. Edgerly, Colorado; J. Edgerly, Nebraska; James B. Weaver, Iowa; Senator William V. Allen, Nebraska; J. W. Briden, Kansas; J. Edgerly, Illinois; Harry Tracy, Texas; Robert Schilling, Wisconsin; and J. M. Bowler, Minnesota.

The Sherman drive bridge over Pleasant run, about three blocks south of Washington street, gave way yesterday morning, and fell with a crash, killing three of the animals and injuring others so badly that they will probably have to be killed. Eleven other cows were more or less injured. The cattle were standing in the bed of the creek under the bridge when the accident occurred, and the heavy timbers plowed the animals in the sand and water.

An important dispatch has been received in diplomatic quarters in Washington, forwarded from the Foreign Office, in which the powers taking part in the international conference dealing with much detail a conversation with Li Hung Chang, in which he expresses his despair over the condition of the Chinese government, and fears that the army and navy of China are in a state of complete collapse. The conversation was with the consul of the United States in Peking, and he had an intimate friend of London, and with Earl Li, the latter spoke unreservedly of the deplorable condition of affairs among his own people. The dispatch quoted Li Hung Chang as saying that he is satisfied that the conservative or progressive element, to which he belongs, no longer

The ascendancy of Li Ping Heng, the Intense anti-foreign leader, is referred to, and it was stated that it was due to his proposition that the conservative members of the Tsung-li-Yamen were headed. This last event appeared particularly to depress Li Hung Chang, who regarded it as establishing that the progressive element favorable to the Chinese empire could expect no mercy. He was engaged on Sunday, which preceded occupation of Peking by the allies. The Russians lost 600 killed and the British 80. The Germans and Japanese also heavily.

expressed the belief that he would be among those to suffer.

The substance of the dispatch has been communicated to the State Department.

BERLIN, August 8.—The German Foreign Office, in confirming the report of Count von Walderees' appointment, said this was only to the command of the German forces in China, and that the question as to whether he would command the German troops in the East was a HOME INSTITUTION, concerning the German people.

Nearly all the evening papers publish the statement that the count has been appointed commander-in-chief of the combined forces. W. H. BRENTLINGER KILLED

PRESIDENT OF CIGAR MAKERS' UNION.

Body Found Out to Pieces on the Union Railway Tracks at New Jersey Street.

William H. Brentlinger, president of the Cigar-makers' Union, living at 814 South New Jersey street, was killed by a train about 1 o'clock this morning at the New Jersey street crossing of the Union railway tracks. It is not known in what manner he met his death, but it is supposed that he was walking to his home and was struck by a train while crossing the tracks. He was out in two and his arms and legs were almost torn off. There is evidence that the body was dragged along the tracks for a distance of almost a block. The train which killed Brentlinger is thought to be either the Pan-Handle train, which left the Union station at 12:30 o'clock, or a Monon train, leaving about twenty minutes later. When they up and they told him that he was the man.

READY TO BE PAID.

Warrants Issued for the Postoffice Site Property.

C. F. Sayles has withdrawn the exceptions taken in the United States Court to the appraisal on his real estate in square No. 36—the site for the Government building—and has agreed to accept the amount fixed by the appraisers, $30,000. In his exceptions he asked the Government to pay $125,000 for the property. There is only one other plot in the real estate in the square in which exceptions have been taken to the appraisal. It belongs to H. C. Long, and the appraisers fixed its value at $41,000.

Judge W. A. Woods signed the last of the decrees, this morning, giving the Government full title to the entire square. As soon as the decrees were signed, Noble C. Butler, clerk of the court, drew warrants on the treasury at Chicago for the various amounts, and said the money will be paid to the property holders when they deliver up the sums they are entitled to. Mr. Butler uses a bountiful supply of ink in writing the warrants, but not singly, but in blocks of ten or twenty at a time, as well as the warrants for $30,000, $41,000, etc. The warrants written by the court are for a total of $71,000.

The decrees of the court show there are numerous mortgages against the square, and some street improvement liens are attached to it. The Government will pay off the mortgages and liens to the holders, and deduct the amounts from the appraised price of the real estate against which they stand. The tenants of the square are not to be disturbed for some time and will be paid by the Government as soon as the decrees are signed. A. A. Young, Government agent for the square, has had applications from persons who want to take over the old buildings to make way for the new, but no arrangements for this work have yet been made. The opinion is that a good many buildings will be torn down this fall.

THE TYPO CONVENTION.

Interesting Program for the Meeting at Milwaukee.

The program for the convention of the International Typographical Union, which begins at Milwaukee, Wis., next Sunday, is full of business and entertainment. Sunday evening the convention will open with a reception and smoker at Pabst's Cafe. The delegates from the Eastern, Southern and Central States will meet in Pabst's brewery and Whitehall, and a fish supper will be served at the bay. Tuesday there will be a big excursion to Lake Park, West Park, the National Soldiers' Home, and other places. Wednesday night there will be a club house and fish supper on Jones island, given to the photo engravers, stereotypers and electrotypes. Thursday evening there will be theater parties for the women and a banquet at the Kirby House for the delegates. Ex-Governor George W. Peck, of "Peck's Bad Boy" fame, will be toastmaster at the Kirby House banquet. Other speakers will be David S. Rose, mayor who will talk on "The International Typographical Union"; S. R. Donnelly, assistant of the International Typographical Union; who will speak on "Our Next President"; James M. Lynch, president-elect, on "The Ladies' and J. G. Derlinger on "The International Printing Pressmen and Assistants' Union."

The international headquarters, in Indianapolis, will be closed Saturday for ten days or more, while the officers are in Milwaukee. The Indiana delegation will be a big one.

Box Cars on Fire.

The fire department was called to the L. E. & W. tracks and East street, about 5:30 this morning, where a box car was found to be on fire. The origin of the fire is thought to be incendiary. The loss was small. In the Big Four yards at Brightwood, yesterday afternoon, a box car was damaged by fire caused from a spark from a passing locomotive.

THE RIDE TO RIVERSIDE.

When you want to catch a car going to Riverside Park it is on the Blake street line—but not every car on that line. It is a large sign on the front of the car, saying "Ride to Riverside Park." It does not do much else than go to Riverside Park. The sign is a large one, and it is straight and more ground is covered, perhaps, than by any other street car line in the same part of the city.

Going west through Washington street the line turns up West street, passes Military Park, a spot that one never tires of. After leaving New York street at Blake there is little to attract the attention, for Blake street, though pleasant, is without distinction. It is narrow, unvaried, and about the houses there is nothing to catch the eye. The line follows the street to Indiana avenue, and then northwest through the streets across the west bridge at Fall creek, and out the pike. To the south is the City Hospital and as one gets this view of it is well located in the impression that it is well located in the reason of Fall creek and the water-works ground.

Off to the west is the water-works building, and the top of the new stone dam peeping just beyond to be seen at intervals. The line then turns west, which has nothing notable in it for the eye, simply a long narrow street of modest dwellings. At Eighteenth street the line starts down past the canal-works, the canal block, and the north side of the line, and a vaudeville show free, and then plunges into the heart of the city, whence it goes on to the boulevard or raised drive in the park, this side of the river, on which it still belongs to the line. Here a loop is made and after running back a short distance the northward journey through the park begins, and for more than a mile it is a bee-line to the next stopping place at Thirtieth street. On the return journey the line goes west over Twenty-seventh street, then to the south and west past the old shooting park until it strikes Montcalm street, whence it runs parallel with the outward bound line. The trip will average a little over an hour from Illinois and Washington streets, but it is longer than most of the other rides; the absence of the time consumed is because for miles after striking the park no stop is made and a high rate of speed is kept up. It is a journey soon told and for objects striking to the eye there is perhaps little in it. But there is more open space and air than can be had in most of the street car trips about town. Really from the time Indiana avenue is reached going out it is all open country, too open one would fancy in the daytime because the trees have not yet grown.

There is little to be seen from the street car line beyond this splendid open view to show what Riverside is or will be. To the west is the dam. Winding along in the west like a great Indian mound is the raised drive. Beyond is the bluff crowned with trees that mark the other side of the river. The water is not visible from the car. The line enters the park with the loop stops a short distance this side of the bridge, over which one goes to enter the park. Beyond are the animals, the bear pits, while at this side is the new building of the Indianapolis Club. The golf links are far to the north.

But the ride to Riverside and the park of Riverside are two different things. One has not time for both unless he goes in the afternoon. The ride gives the eye a great chance at an open sweep of country and the air a great chance at the street car, because of the large spaces that spread around unbroken trees or hills. But the views are not particularly inviting. Little or nothing can be seen from the street car, for the ground of the park beyond the river, whence the whole city can be seen lying below, is not reached by the street car line. It keeps to the plain on this side, driving from the track some of the great flock sheep herded on the low land and calling to the mind's eye the transformation that a few years will work here when all this unbroken open land is beautified with walks, flowers, trees and shrubbery.

HIS DIME INVESTMENT.

A Man Who is Wondering When It Will Cease to Grow.

Not many weeks ago business made it necessary for a Cincinnati man, who often visits Indianapolis and who has a well-known relation to the city, Evansville, and while he sat with his chair tilted back in the hotel lobby, a lottery-ticking clerk made advances to him in regard to a few sold tickets and a diamond ring.

They were "only 10 cents," and the inn's guest held a dime in his hand. It looked like a good thing, and he took it, and the lottery-ticking clerk, who gave him one of the sold tickets in exchange. Like the greater number of the calling of the attention it got was to be utterly forgotten, and the business man went back to Cincinnati.

Two weeks later he received an unexpected package about an inch square. It was a letter by the same post explained it to contain the lottery diamond and himself the winner.

He accompanied the parcel around the corner to a silversmith's, where it was slowly and solemnly examined, while the business man went up and down the stairs and appeared to be interested in everything but the brilliancy of a diamond ring. At last it was found to be worth $500 and the jeweler offered $400 cash, or a note for $450. But the owner determined that it was his and he sold it at all, and took it home to his wife. She is a modest little woman, who calls the attention of her husband to the fact that she would refuse to accept the ring as a lottery prize, he overpowered her by representing it to be a bona fide, out and out present.

But there was another objection when she saw the diamond. It was not being too large for a modest little woman. Smothered with gratitude, nevertheless, she drew warrants on the treasury at Chicago for the various amounts, and said the money will be paid to the property holders when they deliver up the sums they are entitled to. Mr. Butler uses a bountiful supply of ink in writing the warrants, but not singly, but in blocks of ten or twenty at a time, as well as the warrants for $30,000, $41,000, etc. The warrants written by the court are for a total of $71,000.

The decrees of the court show there are numerous mortgages against the square, and some street improvement liens are attached to it. The Government will pay off the mortgages and liens to the holders, and deduct the amounts from the appraised price of the real estate against which they stand. The tenants of the square are not to be disturbed for some time and will be paid by the Government as soon as the decrees are signed. A. A. Young, Government agent for the square, has had applications from persons who want to take over the old buildings to make way for the new, but no arrangements for this work have yet been made. The opinion is that a good many buildings will be torn down this fall.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Angry over his inability to live as he wished on the sum allowed him by his father, Joseph Rabiner, a consumptive, at Rockaway beach, New York, shot and instantly killed Isaac Storer, his brother-in-law, badly wounded his father, Jacob Rabiner, and then turned the weapon on himself, with what is said to be a fatal effect. The father will recover.
